1. At a meeting of the party executive committee of the Brandenburg CDU at Potsdam on 31 May, Georg Dertinger was asked to use his influence against the prejudicial attitude of the Volkspolizei toward CDU members. The Volkspolizei, it was said, has been refusing the enlistment of CDU members and even of the sons of CDU members having no political affiliation.
2. As a result of this situation, a large enrollment, undesirable under these circumstances, of young people into the CDU has been taking place.
